Forecast For London & Southeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 15 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Scattered cloud and sunny spells. Cold overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers quickly easing this evening leading to a dry night, with any patchy cloud fading away. Feeling cold beneath the clearing skies with frost and areas of patchy fog possible by dawn. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Friday:
Another cold and sunny start, once early mist and fog lifts. Some fair weather cloud then likely to develop inland, however it will likely stay dry, with warm sunny spells. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry with sunny spells and variable cloud through the weekend and Monday. Remaining cold overnight, with frost and fog patches. Daytime temperatures likely near normal for April.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.